

September 13, 2020 - AM Service - Romans 12: 1-2

1. The gospel can be summed up by saying that it is about the sovereign _____, in Christ. This salvation is received _____ apart from _____.
2. The Ten Commandments have the preamble. That line _____ of Exodus.
3. All creatures are to serve God according to their _____.
4. The "how not to" is: do not be _____ to this world. The "how to" is: be transformed by the renewal of your _____.
5. Paul's words impress upon us that while being redeemed by God out of grace shows we are _____, within the life of grace we are certainly to be very _____!
6. Instead of conformity to the _____ and its ways, Paul calls for being transformed by the _____ of your mind.
7. We are reminded then of the tremendous work of the _____ in making us a new _____.
8. The word that describes the transformation from a caterpillar to a butterfly is _____.
9. As we know of God's _____ Christ, let us present our bodies to God as a living, holy, acceptable _____.
10. If we open to instruction, our whole life will increasingly be _____.

Afternoon Service - LORD's Day 1

1. We open the book again, the book about the well-known and well-loved _____ story, a story that cannot be heard often enough by sinners.
2. _____ are part of the story, because we _____ to the main character, Jesus Christ.
3. Because God's _____ has been turned away, we are also set free from the heavenly terrorist, that is the _____.
4. We confess that our Saviour is in full _____ at all times.
5. In this topsy-turvy world, we know our _____ has all authority in heaven and on earth.
6. So we are reminded that belonging to our faithful Saviour means we are _____ from the storms of heaven, earth, and our soul.
7. It is emphasis on _____ that makes us understand why there is eagerness to hear the salvation story over and over again.
8. The more we know about our _____, the more we need to know of the mighty _____ from all sin through Jesus Christ, and his continual care for us from heaven, and the more we need to be reassured.
9. The more we know, the more confident we will be that we truly _____ to Jesus Christ, that we are totally _____ with him from all the storms from heaven, earth, and our souls.
10. How can we ever grow _____ of hearing or telling the salvation _____?