

January 10, 2021 - AM Service - Zechariah 1: 7-17

1. There is one powerful inspiring _____ that keep us going as it fills us with comfort and confidence, that has motivated and continues to motivate the _____.
2. While it should be clear that riders on _____ represent a king and his authority, the question in this vision is, "Which _____ do these horsemen represent?"
3. Zechariah's vision impressed on the returned exiles that the _____ army was present.
4. As we absorb this vision of the LORD's heavenly host active on earth, near his people, and as we think of the echoes it finds in the book of _____, what comfort and confidence we receive!
5. By saying that the earth was at _____ it comes out that the rest of the nations didn't really care about the plight of God's people.
6. God is _____ for the exclusive love of his people.
7. So, the message comes down to two things.
 - a. God is _____ with the nations that were used to punish his people for their excessive behaviour and they will be _____ severely.
 - b. God's people will experience his _____
8. Here was a vision for the future to give them _____.
9. This message really is a glorious vision for the _____.
10. Think of the heavenly host surrounding us, that there are more who are _____ us than _____ us.

Afternoon Service - LORD's Day 15

1. The words used from Hebrews 13 right away make clear the purpose of our Lord's suffering, namely, to _____ us, that is, to _____ us from our sins.
2. The Day of Atonement, which formed part of the climax of the annual feasts, was the annual Sin _____ Day, preparing the people for the feast of _____.
3. The Son of God came into our _____ flesh for the very purpose of dying as the _____ sacrifice.
4. Jesus' role as substitute began in the _____.
5. We are therefore sanctified by our Lord's suffering because his suffering had atoning _____. In that suffering he was facing the _____ of God for our sins.
6. Paul at times sums up the gospel by referring to the _____.
7. It cannot be stressed enough that when we look to the life of Jesus our Lord, the first thing we should think of is how he is our _____.
8. In the passage in Hebrews 13, three things are mentioned.
 - a. there is the call to go _____ beside the one who has stood in our place.
 - b. we are called to a life of _____
 - c. we are reminded that the atoning work of Jesus Christ impacts our relationship with fellow _____
9. We have no lasting _____ on this earth, but we seek the city that is to _____.
10. Our Lord Jesus' suffering _____ our life.